A MESSAGE FROM YOUR COMMISSIONER OF THE REVENUE

Priscilla S. Bele

To apply for the Disabled Veterans Real Estate Tax Exemption, you must provide a designated letter from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs stating that you have been rated as having a 100% service-connected, permanent, and total disability; and that entitlement is not due to being unemployable.

VA Form 21-4138, as found on the reverse side of this page, may be completed and used to request the letter. Our office has been instructed by the local VA office that you will need to make the request as stated on this form.

Disability letters or forms previously submitted to our office for other types of tax relief are not acceptable for this exemption.

You may fax or mail the completed VA Form 21-4138 to the Roanoke Regional Office of the Department of Veterans Affairs as follows:
